

3 PRINCIPLES for Selecting Chemical Protective Clothing

Qualified Garments

Using a qualified clothing means it's tested and confirmed to meet the minimum requirements.

ex: CE certified coverall.

Chemical Risk Assessment

Identify the chemical you faced, and accessing the chemical exposure to select appropriate protective clothing.

Permeation Data

Check the permeation data of protective clothing and make sure the breakthrough time is longer than the task required.

